

The Best of the Best - Spas of America's Top 50 Spas of 2009

California, Arizona, Florida, New York and Hawaii top list of popular spa searches

(New York, New York) January 7, 2010 — The spa travel website, Spas of America, today announced their annual ranking of the Top 50 Spas of 2009, based on consumer traffic on their website. "From the red rocks of southern Utah, to the white sand beaches of Hawaii, this year's list is a unique collection of resort, hotel and destination Spa experiences" says Spas of America president Craig Oliver. .

Topping the list for 2009 is the recently re-branded Biggest Loser Resort at Fitness Ridge in Ivins, Utah. Set amidst the remarkable red rocks of southwestern Utah, the Biggest Loser Resort is categorized as a "destination spa," offering an affordable, comprehensive health and fitness experience focusing on exercise, healthy nutrition and education.

Second place goes to the 100 Fountain Spa at the Pillar and Post set in charming Niagara-on-the-Lake, Ontario. Only minutes from Niagara Falls, The 100 Fountain Spa is a year-round destination offering a wide range of cultural, historical and recreational activities.

Rounding out the top three is The Homestead, situated in the scenic Allegheny Mountains of Virginia. Built in 1892, the Homestead Spa is one of America's most historic luxury spas, still fed by the original hot springs that have attracted travelers since the 1700s.
