

Jim McCabeWinemaker

Jim joined Bernardus winery as a cellar worker in 2009 and was quickly recognized for his aptitude, work ethic, organizational skills and palate by Bernardus' Winemaker, Dean DeKorth. Jim became cellar lead in 2012 before being promoted to assistant winemaker in 2014. As Dean's winemaker apprentice, Jim was trained in Bernardus' Burgundian winemaking style over the succeeding 10 years, learning every subtle aspect of Dean's craft in European techniques until Mr. DeKorth's retirement in August of 2023.
